

Reitler Announces the Elevation of Nate Richman to Partner

New York, New York – January 4, 2022 – Reitler Kailas & Rosenblatt is pleased to announce the elevation of Nate Richman to Partner.

Nate joined Reitler in 2015 and handles a wide variety of corporate transactions and matters, including venture capital and private equity investment transactions, mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructurings, joint-venture transactions and general corporate and business matters. He also has substantial experience representing private equity and venture capital sponsors in connection with fund formations and structuring, fundraising and related investment activities, secondary transfers, and matters relating to the operation and management of investment funds and fund sponsors.

“Nate’s dedication and tireless efforts have made him an invaluable member of the Reitler team and we are proud to count him among our partners,” said Scott Rosenblatt, Partner.

Nate graduated from Pace University School of Law, where he was a Daniel A. Austin Corporate Law Scholar, and has been ranked as a New York Super Lawyers® Rising Star every year since 2019.
