

Reitler Announces the Elevation of Julie Wlodinguer to Partner

New York, New York – January 1, 2023 – Reitler Kailas & Rosenblatt is pleased to announce the elevation of Julie Wlodinguer to Partner.

Julie joined Reitler in 2015 and handles a variety of entertainment and commercial litigation matters, including copyright and trademark infringement, copyright terminations, music publishing and recording agreements, management/artist relationships, partnerships, and general contract disputes.

“After working side by side with me for over 13 years, I am honored to call Julie my partner. Her hard work, dedication and incredible intellect make her an irreplaceable asset to our firm,” said Brian Caplan, Partner.

Julie also litigates and counsels’ clients with respect to employment issues and provides general representation and counsel with respect to operational and licensing issues in the real estate and hospitality sectors.
